

STOKED SUPPORTERS OF THE COMMUNITY SINCE 1995

Lets go Surfing

Over 22 years of providing surfing lessons and courses for beginners and recreational surfers of all ages, genders and abilities, Lets Go Surfing (LGS) has kept deep roots in their community and contribute to it through their products and experiences as well as a range of benevolent initiatives.

- Holiday Surf Camps, afterschool courses and Weet-Bix SurfGroms
- Sponsoring charity events, schools, community groups and those in need
- Disabled Surfers Association members
- Supporting Waverley Business Chamber, Randwick Council and Tourism Committees
- Major sponsors of Bondi Girls Surf Riders Club
- Connecting remote and coastal indigenous communities through surfing
- Supporting asylum seekers

Born and raised in Sydney's eastern beach suburbs and a Bondi resident for the past 22 years, Founder and Director Brenda Miley is a long-standing member of Randwick City Council's Tourism Committee and a current competition director at the Bondi Girls Surf Riders. Brenda's partner and LGS General Manager Craig 'Wacca' Wachholz sits on the Bondi Chamber of Commerce Board, and a good chunk of the LGS team of staff and instructors are blessed to live in and around Bondi.

Some of LGS's products, experiences and initiatives tailored for local communities include:

- Surf education sessions for school or community groups covering beach games, body surfing, beach walks and surf safety information
- Bondi Beach Kids Club, Kids Holiday Surf Camps, Afterschool Kids courses and Weet-Bix SurfGroms program
- Supporting Norman Andrews House, a charity for Bondi community members in need of physical, mental or spiritual support
- Supporting One Wave, a not-for-profit group tackling mental health issues with salt-water, surfing and mateship
- Helping WAYS (Waverley Action for Youth Services Inc) provide education and support services to young people and their families
- Sponsoring Vets Go Surfing with Tobruk House to help reintegrate soldiers into the community through physical activity, strength and balance
- Events for people of all ages with disabilities run in partnership with Disability Support Services Association Redinc.
- Supporting asylum seekers in association with Settlement Services International, providing surf courses as a valuable and emotional uplift for people who have experienced massive trauma in the ocean.
- Surf Sessions for students from NASCA, an organisation that utilises the power of structured sporting and culture programs to harness the life aspirations of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander young people.
- Surf Lessons for groups from Wayside Chapel, Bondi Beach.
- Partnering with Blind Sports NSW that assists people who are blind and vision impaired with free surfing lessons.
- Annual International Women's Day free surfing and breakfast event for the local community.
- Free lessons during Bondi Blitz Youth Week and Seniors Week
- Sponsor of the Bondi Girls Surfriders
- Surf Partner with Waves of Wellness, providing surf therapy and support programs for people experiencing mental health challenges

"Bondi Beach is our home, our work and our lives. It has been very, very good to us, and returning the favour however we can keeps us grounded."
explains Wacca.

"Our team do their bit to keep the beach and waterways clean every day, keep our community safe at the beach and share our love of surfing and the ocean with residents, visitors and those in need."
